POSTGRADUATE STUDY FOR THE GLORY OF GOD

† †

A ONE-DAY SEMINAR

- † What is the gospel and how does it impact your postgraduate study?
- † In what ways can the gospel be applied to postgraduate study, research and teaching?
- † How can you honour God in and through your postgraduate study?

Dunedin: Sat 17 April - Clubs and Societies Centre, Albany Street

Canterbury: Sat 1 May - Laidlaw College, Condell Avenue

Palmerston North: Sat 8 May - Massey University Chaplaincy, Colombo Road

Auckland: Sat 29 May - Carey College Christian School, Domain Road

AN INTERACTIVE DAY TAKEN BY, BEV NORSWORTHY ONE OF NEW ZEALAND'S LEADING EDUCATORS.

WE'LL BE EXPLORING THREE CRUCIAL QUESTIONS:

- † What is the gospel and how does it impact your postgraduate study?
- † In what ways can the gospel be applied to postgraduate study, research and teaching?
- † How can you honour God in and through your postgraduate study?

YOU'LL COME AWAY FROM THE DAY WITH:

- † New friends
- † Deeper convictions about the centrality of God in tertiary education
- † Better skills to integrate your faith in Christ into the heart of your scholarship
- † Renewed confidence in God's purposes for you as a postgraduate student
- † A set of materials enabling you to put what you've learnt into practice

Dr Bev Norsworthy is the Dean of Teacher Education at Bethlehem Tertiary Institute. She is passionate about the role education has in shaping a nation and has been involved as teacher, principal, and teacher educator across primary and secondary schools in New Zealand and South Australia. Her research is in the field of assessment, curriculum design, reflective practice and their role in effective adult learning and transformation. She has presented papers in New Zealand, Australia and USA and has publications in a number of journals.

The day will run from 9am until 5pm. A delicious morning and afternoon tea will be provided but you'll need to bring your own lunch.

All this for just $20!
