

catalyst summer conference

7-14 January 2012 | El Rancho | Waikanae

What is the summer conference?

The Catalyst Summer Conference is a week-long residential event designed to grow a new generation of influence in New Zealand.

Who is it for?

The Catalyst Summer Conference is for professionals and workers, graduates and postgraduate students in their 20s and 30s, along with their pastors, who want to see the gospel renew and shape all areas of their lives, impact their vocations and influence their regions.

What's it about?

We'll explore the four key turning points of Scripture together: The Creation, Fall, Cross and New Creation. In doing so, we'll strengthen our theological convictions, sharpening our engagement with our culture, deepening practices of spiritual disciplines, and applying biblical wisdom to the art of living justly.

What will you get out of it?

You'll be better able to embody and express the gospel of Jesus Christ. You'll also come away refreshed from many good times at the beach.

You'll grow in your ability to live with integrity and in Christian maturity in all aspects of your life including your work, church, sport and leisure.

You'll learn how to apply the Bible to the whole of life and relate the gospel to work, study and play while enjoying a fantastic holiday.

You'll be able to see more clearly and participate more fully in God's mission in the world. You'll also have the opportunity to do a huge range of optional fun activities during free time.

ABOUT CATALYST

We are a growing intergenerational network of friends in our 20s, 30s and beyond. We're committed to seeing New Zealand flourish through living, applying and expressing the gospel intentionally together, in our workplaces, professions, disciplines and regions. www.catalyst.ac.nz

WHAT WE DO

We form networks across cities, within professions and throughout disciplines. We meet together consistently in these groups to support each other in living, applying and expressing the gospel in our workplaces. Between gatherings you'll find us fleshing the gospel out in ways that make a constructive difference to who we are, what we do, who we work for and those we work with.

SPEAKERS

Our speakers are respected around the world and throughout New Zealand. Through small groups, discussion, panels, expositions and seminars our speakers and the Catalyst team will seek to invest in you to see the gospel's impact in your life, church and vocation continue to thrive.

Rev. David H. Kim | David Kim is on staff at Redeemer's Presbyterian Church in New York. Redeemer is led by the internationally respected pastor, writer and leader Dr. Timothy Keller. David leads 'The Gotham Fellowship': an intensive education program for young professionals which seeks to provide the theological, spiritual, and relational foundations required for meaningful and sustainable integration of faith, life and work.

'I don't think it is possible to make Christian disciples of young professionals without helping them think out the difference Christ makes for their public lives, not just their private lives. David Kim is a pioneer in this area. I don't think anyone is better at this right now than he is.'
Dr. Timothy Keller

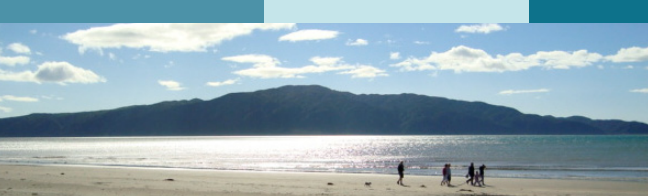

Amilee Watkins | Amilee joined the staff of Redeemer Presbyterian Church in 2009 following seven wonderful years with Starbucks Coffee Company, where she managed several stores throughout Manhattan. Her career with Starbucks centered on renewing the city through the creation of the 'Third Place' and fostering servant leadership. Amilee is now thrilled to be working in leadership development with Redeemer's many vocation groups. In addition to her management background, Amilee is a freelance flutist and holds a BM in Instrumental Performance.

Nigel Pollock | Nigel has an extensive international ministry. He has spoken in every continent at conferences, camps and graduate events, and delivered many public lectures on university campuses. He has also written widely for magazines and published two books including the best-selling 'Relationships Revolution'. Nigel currently lives in Wellington with his family where he serves as the National Director of TSCF.

Mark Grace | Mark has worked for TSCF for the last 10 years. Over the last three he has been developing and leading Catalyst. Mark celebrates both his Pakeha and Maori heritage. He speaks around the country and has a passion to see the gospel applied to all of life.

When and where is the conference?

The 2012 Catalyst Summer Conference will be on from 12pm Saturday 7th of January through to Saturday 14th at 1pm at the beautiful El Rancho Christian Holiday Park in Waikanae on stunning Kapiti Coast, 60km north of Wellington. El Rancho overlooks the delightful Waikanae River and is very close to Paraparaumu Beach where we'll spend some fantastic times together.

How much does it cost?

The Catalyst Summer Conference has two cost options depending on the accommodation you choose. The Motel option includes all your meals and accommodation. (You will need to provide your own bedding.) The Tenting option includes all meals but you or one of your group will need to provide a tent.

1) Motel accommodation $399 2) Tenting accommodation $326

How do I register?

It's crucial to register as places are limited. To register go to www.catalyst.ac.nz

If you would like a hard copy registration form please email janr@tscf.org.nz

What happens afterwards?

Catalyst is an emerging network of people throughout New Zealand churches, workplaces, and universities committed to seeing the gospel transform themselves, their vocations, regions and cities. As participants head back to their churches and workplaces we hope to continue to resource, encourage and support them through regular events, high quality resources and excellent mentoring.

Catalyst Books will be providing a wide range of quality hand-picked books for life, study and work. All books will be lower than the normal retail price. Cash and cheques will be accepted. www.catalystbooks.ac.nz
